AMENDMENT

Honorable Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated December
24, 2003, please amend the above application as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

21

19. A high impact golf clubhead, comprising: a metallic body having a substantially flat ball striking wall on one side thereof angularly related to a vertical plane to provide clubhead loft, said ball striking wall having a plurality of generally parallel grooves therein and a face height of about 1.4 inches, said ball striking wall being substantially planar and relatively thin, said ball striking
